noral Orders, No. 232. By the President of the United States of America

By the Prevident of the United States of Aceron.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, by a proclamation which was issued on the 18th day of April, 1981, the President of the United States had been for some time past, and then were, opposed, and the exacution therest obstructed, in certain States therein mentioned, by combinations too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, or by the powers vested in the marklais by law;

And whereas, immediately after the insuing of the sud proclamation the land and naval forces of the United States were put into activity to suppress the said insurrection and rebellion;

And whereas, the Congress of the United States, by an act approved on the 2d day of March, 1881, did enset that during the said rebellion the President of the United States, whenever in his judgment the public activity may require it, is authorized to suspend the privilege of the writ of Asbesic corpus in any case throughout the United States, or in any port thereof;

And whereas, the said insurrection and rebellion still continue, endangering the existence of the Constitution and Government of the United States;

And whereas, the military forces of the United States; A PROCLAMATION.

And whereas, the military forces of the United And whereas, the military forces of the United States are now satively engaged in suppressing the said insurrection and rebellion in various parts of the States where the said rebellion has been successful in obstructing the laws and public authorities, especially in the States of Virginia and Generals.

thorities, especially in the States of Virginia and Georgia;
And whereas, o the 19th day of September last, the Fresident of the United States Guly issued his proclamation, wherein he declared that the privilege of the writ of Askess corpus should be suspended throughout the United States in the cases where, by the authority of the Fresident of the United States, military, naval, and evid officers of the United States, or any of them, hold persons under their command or in their custedy, either as prisoners of war, spies, or alders or abettors of the seemy, of officers, colleges, or sames arrolled or drafted or mustered or cultised its, or belonging to, the land or maval forces of the United States or a desorters therefrom, or otherwise assemble to deserters therefrom, or otherwise amenable to nilitary law or the Rules and Articles of War, or the rules or regulations prescribed for the military or naval services, by authority of the President of the United States, or for resisting a draft, or for any other offense against the military or naval service;

And whereas, many citizens of the State of Kentucky have joined the forces of the insurgents, and such insurgents have, on several occasions, entered the said State of Kentucky in large force, and, not without aid and comfort furnished by disaffected and disloyal citizens of the United States residing these in have met only exceptly disaffected by the said of the pubtucky. As a not only except disturbed the puband disloyal citizens of the United Mates resulting therein, have not only greatly disarrhed the pub-ils peace, but have overborns the civil suthorities and made flagrant civil war, destroying property and life in various parts of that fitsie; And whereas, it has been made known to the President of the United litates by the officers com-manding the national armies, that combinations have been formed in the said State of Kentuck with a purpose of inciting rebel forces to renew with a purpose of inciting rebel forces to renew the said operations of civil war within the said State, and thereby to embarrans the United States armies now operating in the said States of Vir-ginia and Georgia, and even to endanger their safety: Now, therefore, I, ARRAHAM LINCOLM, Presigains and coorgis, and even to enamper their nalety:

Now, therefore, I, ABRAHAM LIWOLE, President of the United States, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws, do hereby deciare that, is my judgment, the public safety especially requires that the suspension of the privilege of the writ of habes corpus, so proclaimed in the said proclamation of the 15th of feptember, 1988, be made effectual and be duly endered in the said throughout the said State of Residency, and that martial law be for the present exhabilished therein. I do, therefore, hereby require of the military officers in the said State that the privileges of the writ of shakes corpus be effectually suppended within the said State, seconding to the aforesaid proclamation, and that martial law be suspended within the said State, seconding to the aforesaid proclamation, and that martial law be established therein, to take effect from the date of this proclamation, the said suspension and estab-lishment of martial law to continue until this proclamation shall be revoked or modified, but not beyond the period when the said rebellion shall have been suppressed or some to an end. And I do heroby require and command, as well all mill-sary officers as all civil officers and authorities ar-to take notice was a correct to the same.

The martial law herein prodained, and the things in that respect horsin ordered, will not be deemed or taken to interfere with the holding of lawful elections, or with the proceedings of the constitutional legislature of kentucky, or with constitutional legislature of kentucky, or with constitutional tegislature of Kentucky, or with the administration of justice in the courts of law scrieting therein between elitiens or the United fiates in suits or proceedings which do not affect the military operations or the constituted authorlites of the Government of the United States.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of [i. s.] Washington, this fifth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-bour, and of the independance of the United States the eighty-ainth.
